

CO District OMTA Winter Festival – “Romantic & Impressionistic Music” – February 25, 2017

Our theme is “Nature Expressed in Romantic and Impressionistic Music”. Michael Gesme will be the clinician at all recitals. He will address this theme as he speaks to the students.

Recitals will be at Wille Hall on COCC campus from 9 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. February 25. Students should be available the entire morning until they receive their recital schedule.

Students are allowed one schedule request that must be stated on the Entry Form. The chairmen will do their best to accommodate this request. There will be no changes after the schedule is done. Parents should not contact the Festival chairmen. Communications should be only between the teacher and chairmen.

Please copy the UPDATED version of the Universal Entry Form found on the Central Oregon District website: omta-centraloregon.org Teachers must fill out the entire form and abide by all guidelines.

Please include a short sentence from the student that relates their piece to nature even if the title of their piece doesn't. These sentences will be printed in the program.

Fees: $15 per student or $25 per family. Make checks payable to: OMTA. No refunds will be given.

Completed forms and checks must be received on or before January 27, 2017. Please send to Judy Kamperman, 21070 Country Squire Rd., Bend, Oregon 97701. Late entries will not be eligible to participate.

Thank you,

Judy Kamperman and Janet Smith co-chairmen
